CLOTHING OUR KIDS (COK) UPDATE – JUNE 28
COK IS BLESSED WITH MANY THOUGHTFUL AND CARING VOLUNTEERS
HERE'S AN EXAMPLE OF ONE WHO SAW AN OPPORTUNITY TO HELP OUR KIDS

COK Volunteer Jennifer Kayes works directly with the schools providing usernames and passwords for the clothing ordering system. That is her Volunteer job. Her full-time position is working with the outlets along Route 1. She learned one of the shops was closing and immediately thought of our kids. Contacting the closing agent, Jennifer came away with 30 contractor-sized bags full of all types of items. She and her two girls did an initial sorting.

What was left — which was substantial — was transported to the Volunteer Center where Karen and her crew separated what would suit Middle Schoolers vs those in High School.

All at COK are extremely impressed by Volunteers who bring unique ideas or tap into their individual networks to further help the Sussex County students in need of appropriate clothing. Thanks, Jennifer!

As Founder Mary Rio says, “It’s not just about new clothes, it’s about a new life.”
