Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

---

Based on emails with our accounting firm ( The Godwin Firm PA, 110 West Pine Street, Georgetown, DE 19947) we have been under the impression that they had filed Form 8868 Application for extension in our behalf and they had been working on the return accordingly. Based on a recent failure to file notice from the IRS we now know the accounting firm failed to follow through on filing form 8868 as they committed to do. We have been trying to get in touch with the firm both via email and phone messages to discuss this situation and they have not returned our calls or emails. We now find ourselves having to file the return ourselves without their help. We ask that you consider this situation and find that we have reasonable cause for filing the return late, although by the due date had the extension been properly filed.
