

ONCE AGAIN, THANKS TO SHOES THAT FIT OVER 600 NEW BRAND NAME SNEAKERS HAVE BEEN DELIVERED TO THE STUDENTS WHO NEED THEM IN SUSSEX COUNTY

On January 14, COK Cape Henlopen High School (CHHS) Buyer/Liaison Susan O'Doherty (who also manages COK's outreach to Sussex County Head Start Programs) made a second delivery to CHHS Social Workers Lisa Williams and Lindsey Levis. Reporter Alexis Griess of WBOC was on hand to interview Susan, Lindsey and Lisa, and the delivery was featured on the January 15 afternoon and evening news. Pictured below is Alexis flanked by Susan on the left and Lisa on the right.

Lisa stated: "Thank you so much for giving us the opportunity to share how your organization has impacted the lives of our students for the better."
