- A Board Meeting was held in early January where Term Limits were approved, and the High School budget was raised to $6,000 per school.
- As of April 1 Pam Fleurette, former President of Tidemark Federal Credit Union will assume the Presidency of COK.
- A STUFF THE BUS event is planned for Saturday March 21 from 9:00am to 3:00pm at the American Legion facility on Route 24.
- Interviews to promote STUFF THE BUS have been scheduled on both Coast TV and Delmarva Life. It is also being marketed to several print media outlets.
- Bob Blouin was interviewed by radio personality Dan Gaffney on WXDE.
- High School Buyer/Liaison Susan O’Doherty was interviewed delivering SHOES THAT FIT to Cape Henlopen High School which was aired on WBOC.
- Center Managers Kim Plum and Sandy Wolfgang went in on a Sunday to help School Liaisons Sue Marquart (also a Center Manager), Barb Weidman and Wanda Williams pack their sneakers for delivery to their assigned schools.
- Several shoe deliveries are featured on the COK Social Media – Facebook and Instagram Platforms – and on our Website.
- COK School Liaison Wanda Williams initiated a highly successful Pilot Program bringing in breakfast for School Personnel at Love Creek Elementary School. More of these to come.
- COK received quite a few inquiries regarding volunteering from our recent HELP WANTED. We are fortunate to have a number of new Community Ambassadors, a few additional School Liaisons, two new Grant Committee Members, a Volunteer to manage credit card transactions, and we’ve added to the Special Events group.
- Username and Password Manager Jennifer Kayes has filled the position representing COK to the Rehoboth/Dewey Chamber of Commerce Members.
- A trial program for KIDS HELPING KIDS was held through Morgan’s Message students at Cape Henlopen High School where they designed and distributed a Clothing Drive Flyer and placed a bin in the school lobby.
- Special Events Committee Members and Millsboro Chamber of Commerce Reps Michele Rogers and Janice Fowler will be hosting a COK Coffee Connect at the Chamber on July 7.
- We held a COK2026 Golf Tournament Kickoff Meeting starting to recruit Sponsors for the event scheduled Monday October 19 at The Peninsula. Sponsor Forms were sent to Volunteers and are on the COK Website.
